Challenge Convention. Change Our World.

Bringing about positive and sustainable change is never easy, but for graduates of Clark University, no challenge is too complex and no goal too grand. If you're passionate about pursuing a meaningful career that makes a difference, Clark is the perfect place to begin. We'll help you build the broad knowledge, deep understanding, and focused skills to bravely confront the world's most urgent and daunting problems and to creatively address tomorrow's opportunities. Whether you choose to create positive change through scientific inquiry, social action, business leadership or creative pursuit, we welcome you to Clark.
