English as a Second Language

Whether you are a U.S. citizen or international student, if English is not your primary language, you are required to take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), which is given worldwide. You may, alternatively, submit results of the IELTS (International English Language Testing System). You will be expected to read, speak and write English fluently, as well as be able to take notes and understand hour-long lectures.

SAT or ACT results are not required for international students, unless English is your native language.

If English is not your native language: (1) First Language: _____

(2) List the most recent date and score of your TOEFL examination. Successful candidates' results are usually in the range of 80 to 120 on the IBT (internet version) or 550 to 677 on the PBT (paper version). IELTS scores should be 6.5 or above.

Date _____ Score _____ Please have official results of your TOEFL or IELTS forwarded to the Admissions Office.

Special Academic Option for First-Year Students

International Studies Stream

Clark University offers a special academic program which students may incorporate into their undergraduate studies. The International Studies Stream allows students to fulfill the University's broad liberal arts requirements with courses that focus on international themes and issues. Students participate in study abroad experiences or internships and develop enhanced foreign language proficiency. Special outside-the-classroom activities include field trips, conferences and concerts. The International Studies Stream can be combined with any major. The program is optional and you may indicate your preliminary interest by checking the box below.

I am interested in the International Studies Stream.

Supplemental Questions

The Admissions Committee would like you to take a few minutes to reflect on the questions below. They are intended to help us get to know you better. Please use the space provided for your responses (no longer than 100 words per question).

1) Why Clark?

2) Describe a time when you faced an academic or personal challenge. How did this experience shape who you are?
