MEN'S BASKETBALL

2004-05 Men's Basketball Newsletter - Postseason

2004-05 Season Review

The men's basketball team, under first-year head coach Mo Cassara, finished the season in fine fashion. The Cougars compiled a 6-2 record in February and a fourth-place finish in the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference with a 5-7 NEWMAC record. Led by junior Tim Dutille, the Cougars defeated Coast Guard at home, 71-58, in the NEWMAC quarterfinals. Dutille had season-highs of 26 points and 15 rebounds. Clark fell to the number one seed and eventual NEWMAC Champion WPI in the semifinals, 73-64, and finished the season 11-15. Dutille was named to the NEWMAC All-Conference First Team (see related story). Graduate student Adam Miller had a solid year adding 6.6 points per game and a team and conference leading 10.0 rebounds per game. Sophomore Cory Szklarz joined the team during the semester break and made an immediate impact, finishing with 13.1 points per game and 4.5 rebounds per game.

Dutille earns NEWMAC All-Conference First Team Honors

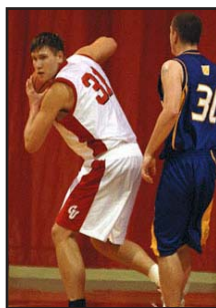

Junior Tim Dutille was named to the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) All-Conference First Team. He was selected to the second team last year. Dutille led the team in scoring (15.7 ppg) and was second in rebounds (7.4 rpg) while recording five double-doubles in 26 games. In addition, he was ranked seventh in the conference in scoring, fourth in rebounds and fourth in field goal percentage (.529).

Miller earns Winter NEWMAC Academic All-Conference Honors

Graduate student Adam Miller was named to the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) Academic All-Conference team. Miller, who is in the fifth-year program and is earning his MBA, has a 3.57 GPA. After a brief absence from basketball Miller, returned to the Cougars and had a major impact. He led the team and was ranked 31st in the country in rebounds per game, and he had the sixth best single game effort in the country, 22 rebounds against Fitchburg State. Miller finished the season averaging 6.6 points per game while shooting 44.4 percent from the floor.
