2004 Season Preview

Captains Nichole Willy '05 and Kara Scimeca '06 will lead the 2004 volleyball team, which returns 12 players from last year's squad. The entire team gained valuable experience during the five-week spring season during which they competed in two tournaments and a scrimmage with Mount Holyoke College. Joining the team this year is Sarah Hunsucker '08, a 6'0 middle blocker from California who is expected to make an immediate impact on the court.

The team will open the season at home on Wednesday, September 1st and then travel to Haverford College in Pennsylvania for an out-of-region tournament during Labor Day Weekend.

Volleyball Team Serves

The volleyball team competed in the ninth annual Cathy D'Apice Tournament during the spring season, which was dedicated to a young woman who had lost her battle with breast cancer. The team raised over $900 for the Connecticut Breast Health Initiative.

The team continued to work with Girl's Inc. in Worcester, teaching volleyball skills to young girls, once per week during the spring semester, a relationship, which began three years ago.

Faculty Mentor

Maurry Tamarkin, a professor in the Graduate School of Management, will continue to serve as the volleyball team's faculty mentor. The faculty mentor program was started by the volleyball team in 2002. Since then Maurry and his wife, Julie, have become the team's biggest (and favorite) fans.

Program Notes:

Coach Karen Farrell is on leave this fall after giving birth to future volleyball player, Kylie Chambers Farrell (class of 2026) on August 15th. Kate Weiss '03 is taking over the day-to-day coaching reigns for the fall season and is assisted by Terry Malone '01, in her fourth season.

Friends of Clark Volleyball has been formed under the umbrella of Friends of Clark Athletics. If you are interested in supporting the volleyball team and would like more information, please contact Karen Farrell.
