

CURRICULUM VITAE

Myles J Callan

- Office Address: Department of Economics
222 Jonas Clark Hall,
Clark University,
950 Main Street,
Worcester, MA 01610.
- Tel: (508) 793 7237
Email: MCallan@ClarkU.edu
- Fields: Macroeconomics, Open Economy Macroeconomics, Time Series Econometrics.
- Education: Ph.D. Economics, Pennsylvania State University, 2000.

M.Litt. Economics, University of Dublin, Trinity College, October 1993.
Dissertation – “The Economics of Road Use.”

M.A. (Hons.) Economics, University College, Dublin, June 1991.

B.A. (Hons.) Economics, University of Dublin, Trinity College, June 1990.
- Thesis: “Viewing Macroeconomics and Macroeconometrics Using a Real-Time Approach: Economic and Econometric Implications of Data Usage and Choice.”
- Dissertation Committee: Eric Ghysels, Norman R. Swanson (co-chairs)
N. Edward Coulson.
- Publications: “A Multivariate Time Series Analysis of the Data Revision Process for Industrial Production and the Composite Leading Indicator,”
A Festschrift in honor of Clive W. J. Granger. Oxford University Press, 1999. (With Eric Ghysels and Norman R. Swanson.)

“Monetary Policy Rules with Model and Data Uncertainty,”
Southern Economic Journal: Vol. 69 (2002), No. 2, pp. 239–265. (With Eric Ghysels and Norman R. Swanson.)
- Current Research: Terms of trade effects in Small Open Oil-based Economies
Exchange rate regimes in Small Open Oil-based Economies
What Does the Composite Index of Leading Indicators Lead? A Real-Time Analysis.
- Compilation Of Data set Monthly real-time data for money (M1 and M2), industrial production, and prices (CPI and PPI). All data are available both seasonally adjusted and unadjusted. (With Norman R Swanson and D. van Dijk).

Teaching
and
Advising
Experience

Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, Clark University, (2002 – present).

Ph.D. Dissertation Chair:

Bander Abdulkarim (Successful dissertation defense, July 2004)

“An Analysis of Macroeconomic Fluctuations for a Small Open Oil-based Economy: The Case of Saudi Arabia”

Geoffrey Homoliski (Successful prospectus defense, June 2004)

“Pro-cyclical Lending and Loan Loss Provisioning: An Application of Spanish Dynamic Provisioning to the U.S. Banking System”

Ph.D. Dissertation Committee:

Hamza Al-Salem, Constantine Alexandrakis, Rabia Aslam, Vladislav Dolgoplov, Vjacheslav Dombrovsky, Ieva Rubene, Trufat Woldeesenbet.

Macroeconomics theory qualifying exam committee (2002/03 to 2007/08)

Honors Thesis Advising

2005/06: Sattha Prasitwarakul: Speculative Currency Attacks

Rebecca Batza: The Effects of Fiscal Policy on the Current Account: Evidence from a Vector Auto-Regression Approach

2003/04: Razmig Tchaghlasian: Event history and exchange rates

Ashley Fors: Missing financial markets, a case study - The Grameen Bank

2002/03: Milica Kecmanovic: EMU and its effect on trade patterns.

Kurt Viehl: VAR analysis of Japanese economy

Summer Internship advising:

2004: Fardeen Chowdhury – Grameen Bank, Bangladesh

2003: Amrita Hapuarachchi – Multi-fiber industry, Sri Lanka

Economics Society: Coordinator (2002/03 – 2005/06)

Meeting one evening a week: Discussion of topics in economics

Coordinated trips to New York, Boston, Rutland (Heifer Farm)

Other events: Alumni meetings (4), outside speakers, presentations, etc.

Other department services include:

Preparation of Faculty Section of External Review of Graduate Program (2002/2003)

Faculty search committee (2002/2003)

Presentation: Exploring Majors (Economics) (2003)

Departmental representative at: Open House and Majors Fair (2002/03 and 2003/04)

Preparation of Proposal for Graduate Student Research Seminar (2003/2004)

Teaching
and
Advising
Experience
(continued)

Visiting Assistant Professor, , Department of Economics, Clark University, (2001/02)
Graduate Macroeconomics II, International Monetary Theory,
Introduction to Statistics, Macroeconomics, Monetary Economics.
Lecturer, University of Virginia, (1999-2001). Introduction to Statistics, Money and Banking, Economic Forecasting.
Instructor, Pennsylvania State University, Summer 1999. Econometrics.
Instructor, Pennsylvania State University, Fall 1997. Intermediate Macroeconomics,
Teaching Assistant, Pennsylvania State University, (1994 – 1998). Introduction to Macroeconomics, Introduction to Microeconomics, Introduction to Econometrics, Econometrics, Seminar in Econometrics (Time Series), Seminar in Econometrics (Cross Sectional).
Instructor, University of Dublin, St. Catherine's College. (1992 – 1994). Applied Economics.
Teaching Assistant, Statistics, University of Dublin, Trinity College. (1992)
Teacher, Accounting, Business Studies, and Economics, Ballinteer Community High School. (1991).
Teaching Assistant, Computer Applications, University of Dublin, Trinity College. (1989).

Other
Experience:

Fitzpatrick Associates, Consultant. Jan. 1994 - July 1994.
Irish Business and Employer's Confederation. Economic impact study of the mining industry in Ireland, Consultant. December 1993 - July 1994.
Aer Rianta (The Irish Airport Authority), phase one of an economic impact study of Dublin airport, Consultant. January 1994 - July 1994.
Chamber of Commerce, Ireland. Statistical analysis of the "Air Transport Users Committees' Survey". May 1992 and August 1993.

Awards:

Nominated, "Who's Who Among America's Teachers," 2003.
Hereford College Fellow, University of Virginia. 1999-2001.
Distinguished Teaching Assistant Award. Pennsylvania State University. 1997-98.
Irish-American-Partnership Fellowship. University of Dublin, Trinity College. 1991-1993.

University Service:

University Committee Memberships:
Admissions Committee (2003/4-2005/6)

Book,
Journal
And Grant
Reviews

International Journal of Forecasting
Studies in Nonlinear Dynamics and Econometrics
Canadian Research Council
The Dryden Press/Harcourt College Publishers
Prentice-Hall Inc.