Please indicate if you have a floor or a room preference due to a personal or medical reason. Please indicate this in the space provided below. Every effort will be made to make assignments according to location, room size and smoking preferences provided; however, this may not always be possible due to space limitations.

* Contracts for 906/914/926 Main Street run from June 1, 2009 to May 24, 2010 (current residents extending their contract may start their new contract on May 18, 2009. Blackstone Hall (returning graduate students) contracts run from August 17, 2009 through May 24, 2010. Graduate students who wish to remain in or move into their Blackstone assignment before this date will be charged the summer housing rate of $18 per day for a single room, $16 per day for a double room.

* Please note that 906 Main Street is comprised of private bedrooms sharing all common spaces and facilities in the house. This is referred to as an "Open House". 914 Main Street has 6 graduate apartments, and each one has its own kitchen, lounge, bathroom, and 4 single bedrooms. 926 Main Street has 12 graduate apartments, and each one has its own kitchen, bathroom, and 3 single bedrooms. Blackstone Hall apartments have 2 single and 2 double rooms.

All graduate apartments may be coeducational (914/926 Main and Blackstone Hall). If you prefer a single sex apartment please indicate this under "additional comments". Students have access only to their individual apartment unit.

* The initial deposit of $300 is non-refundable except if a student is wait-listed. Wait-listed students may request their deposit be returned at any time prior to being offered a housing assignment.
