Catching up with Clarkies

We sat down with two alumni who discussed what they've been up to since graduation and how their experiences at Clark helped to get them where they are now. Abhijit Singh '16, currently based in Toronto, Canada, reflects on how the opportunities and people at Clark contributed to his personal and professional growth.

Similarly, Maya Fox '16 talks about how her experience as a resident advisor while at Clark sparked a love of helping students feel at home and helped to guide her on her current career path.
