Catching up with Clarkies

Our featured alumna this month is Jess Donati '15. Since graduating, Jess has been pursuing a career in Nursing. She discovered a passion for helping others through her experiences at Clark and chose to follow that path after graduation. Read the full interview here.

GOLD Council Updates

Looking back on the second half of 2021, I'm proud of what the GOLD Council has accomplished. Most notably, we hosted the second iteration of the "Welcome to the City" series this past fall, bringing together young Clark alumni at events in Worcester, Boston, New York, Chicago, and Washington, D.C. for food, drinks, and games.

With the start of a new year, the GOLD Council is exploring more ways to better engage young alumni in 2022, including but not limited to: a Clarkie Day of Service, the annual Life After Clark event for soon-to-be graduates, and various activities across GOLD Council subcommittees.

I'm excited to see what opportunities this new year brings for the Council and for all GOLDies! You can learn more, provide feedback, submit ideas, and get involved on our GOLD Council page.

Alex Turgeon, '16, M.B.A. '17
GOLD Council Co-Chair

Learn More About the GOLD Council

Missing the Clark experience already? There are plenty of ways to stay involved with your Alma Mater!

- Help us plan reunion – right now we are looking for alumni from Classes of 2017 and 2012 to join their 5th and 10th reunion committees, respectively. Reunion committees help Clark make reunion awesome, are the first to hear what’s being planned, and help invite friends and classmates. Interested? Click here.
- Support The Clark Fund – making a donation to The Clark Fund helps current students and faculty as well as supporting alumni engagement activities.
- Volunteer – Stay tuned! Details on volunteer opportunities coming soon.
- Connect with us on social media - Connect with other Clark alumni and share your Clark experience on Facebook and Instagram.
