

GOLD Nuggets - August 2022

Clarkies Protecting our Planet

This summer, young alumni volunteered at the first-ever GOLD Day of Service to remove invasive plant species at Worcester's Broad Meadow Brook Wildlife Sanctuary. Special thanks to Mass Audubon employees and Clark alumni, Jenn (Majors) Madson '08 and Nick Rossi '12, for helping to make this event possible!

Clark alumni aren't the only ones at the forefront of protecting the environment — here are three ways Clark professors are using their research and expertise to combat climate change and protect our planet.

Clarkies Protecting our Planet

Whether it's young alumni curtailing invasive species in Worcester or prominent faculty leading the charge on global climate change action, Clarkies are on the front lines of making the world a greener place.

Are you a Clarkie working to protect our environment, or do you know others who are?

Update from GOLD Council

Dear GOLDies,

What an incredible summer it's been so far! Thank you to all the volunteers who came to our first-ever GOLD Day of Service.

Now we are looking forward to September and our Welcome to the City event series! Keep an eye out for details and registration links coming soon.

PLUS — looking for new ways to stay connected to Clark? Stay tuned for GOLD Council volunteer opportunities coming your way this fall.

Sincerely,

Emilee Cocuzzo '18, MBA '19
GOLD Council Co-Chair

Welcome to the City Events

Our favorite fall event series is just around the corner — and this year we're coming to Boston, New York City, and Washington, D.C.

Welcome to the City events are a chance for you to mingle with other young alumni and grow your network of Clarkies in your area. Plus — if you're new to one of these cities, this is a great chance to discover a new hangout spot!

Stay tuned for details and dates!
