

Ángel Saavedra Cisneros
Assistant Professor of Govt.
Bowdoin College

Free and open to the public
Refreshments will be served

Understanding the Latine Vote Through Useful Oversimplifications

The William V. Shannon '47, Litt.D.'64 Spring 2023 Lecture

Latinos are the largest minority group in America. How do we make sense of the politics of such a diverse and changing demographic? Drawing from his nationally award-winning book, Latino Identity and Political Attitudes: Why Are Latinos Not Republican? Dr. Saavedra offers the explanation of identities. While some identities are non-political, others are shaped by and driven by politics, and can help to better predict how Latinos will behave politically.

Friday, March 31, 2023 | 12 – 1:30 pm | Fireside Lounge | Dana Commons