

CLARK UNIVERSITY

Guide to Graduate Studies | 2022-2023

Welcome to Clark University

Academic Excellence – Career Advantage – Global Reach

Students from all over the world come to Clark University for intellectual growth and professional achievement.

Since our founding in 1887 as the first graduate-only institution in the United States, we have built a reputation for rigorous academics, hands-on learning, and research that addresses the social and scientific challenges facing the world today. We are proud of the career successes of our alumni worldwide.

As part of our graduate school, you will enjoy:

- Small class sizes that allow you to connect one-on-one with world-renowned faculty practitioners who are experts in their fields
- Internship opportunities that let you gain practical skills while developing on-the-job confidence
- Personalized support and career advising at every stage of your Clark journey
- A welcoming campus environment that embraces diversity and inclusion

If it's time to advance your career or build a new one, we invite you to join our community of creative, passionate, and intellectually engaged students. A master's degree from Clark is a lifetime credential that will give you the knowledge, skills, and confidence to succeed.

Advance Your Career

“You really need to network with someone who works in the industry, whether you plan to stay in the U.S. or go back home. Clark Career Services hosts a number of networking events with alumni who are willing to help you with your job search.”

Eric Yao, MSF '16, Senior Associate, Deloitte

Clark University is the launch pad to the career you want.

Your journey starts with rigorous classroom academics taught by faculty practitioners who are accessible and supportive. It is complemented by internship opportunities that give you hands-on, real-world experience. And it is accelerated by a Career Services Program dedicated to your professional development, internship assistance and preparation, and eventual employment. The program provides opportunities for you to:

- Attend Clark's annual fall and spring career fairs for job and internship opportunities with 50+ visiting employers
- Listen in on panel discussions with alumni who work in relevant fields
- Sharpen skills with our new Professional Development Program, run in conjunction with Unum
- Check out our annual Alumni-in-Residence Day, which brings numerous Clark and School of Management alumni to campus for a day of career dialogue and networking for students
- Attend student development conferences, sponsored by our alumni, for education opportunities on and off campus

Successful alumni and recent graduates are employed by many of the best-known companies and brands worldwide.

“One reason I chose Clark is that all the professors are also practitioners. They combine textbook learning and years of research with first-hand experience working in the industry. They helped me bridge the gap between academics and industry.”

In the Heart of New England: Worcester, Massachusetts

Clark University is located in New England's second largest city, Worcester, Massachusetts. It is the heart of it all and offers a wide variety of professional opportunities by day and a thriving arts and culinary scene at night. Worcester's population is very diverse. More than 20% of the population are immigrants, and the city's rich cultural landscape continues to shape Worcester's identity into a colorful and vibrant place to live and learn.

Highlights include:

- 30 international destinations to and from Boston Logan International Airport
- 20 trains to and from Boston daily — a 54-minute trip
- Forbes.com has ranked Worcester No. 9 in the U.S. for culture and leisure activities
- 65+ arts and cultural destinations, including the Worcester Art Museum, which showcases masterpieces from El Greco, Monet, Rembrandt, Picasso, Van Gogh, and Gauguin
- 60+ parks including Elm Park, a historic space designed by Frederick Law Olmstead
- CNNMoney.com places Worcester in the top 40 cities in the U.S. to live and launch a business
- Sports teams to cheer on include the Worcester Railers (hockey), Worcester Bravehearts (baseball), the Worcester Red Sox (baseball), and two (American) football teams: the Pirates (IFL — Indoor Football League), and the Wildcats.

Clark is welcoming to all, and provides a range of resources to help you immerse yourself in our academic community.

INTERNATIONAL CENTER AT CORNER HOUSE

The International Center (IC) is centrally located on campus and provides a home away from home for Clark's international student community. The IC advises on a variety of matters, including immigration, social, financial, academic, and personal concerns related to daily life in the United States. The IC also hosts events throughout the year that will help you settle in and make new friends.

GRADUATE HOUSING

Off Campus: Most of our graduate students choose to live off-campus with roommates. You'll find a variety of affordable, off-campus housing options located near campus, as well as in downtown Worcester and the surrounding areas.

On Campus: Our on-campus graduate housing offers convenient, fully-furnished apartment-style living with private bedrooms, shared living spaces, and clean and secure facilities. All costs are included, and rooms are allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.

CAMPUS SAFETY 24/7

Clark University's Police Department is on duty 24 hours a day, seven days a week, to ensure a safe campus for all. Officers are certified Massachusetts State Special Police Officers and police academy trained.

CLARK RIDE

This student safety escort service offers free transportation to area locations, including on- and off-campus residences, grocery stores, pharmacies, and restaurants.

STUDENT INVOLVEMENT

We know how important it is to balance studies with social activities. With a variety of student-run clubs, including service organizations and cultural awareness groups, you can make friends and forge bonds that will last a lifetime.

STAYING FIT

Our on-campus athletic and fitness facilities will help you stay healthy, fit, and mentally grounded. The Bickman Fitness Center features cardio and weight equipment, as well as group fitness classes.
