Pre-Orientation Programs for First-Generation and BIPOC Students

Multicultural & First Generation Student Support exists to provide you with a sense of community, resources, and leadership tools to help you accomplish your goals. MFGSS offers two FREE pre-orientation programs that take place in August: ACE Summer Institute & Connections@Clark. Learn more and apply on the Clark Orientation website under “Pre-Orientation Programs.”

- Apply by July 2 for the Advancing Clark Excellence (ACE) Summer Institute, a special four-year support program for students who identify as first-generation (those who are the first in their family to pursue a four-year degree) or domestic students of color (African American, Latinx, Asian/Desi American, Native/Indigenous American, Middle Eastern, Pacific Islander, and/or multiracial). The Summer Institute provides you an opportunity to connect with peers and faculty, take classes, and stay connected to resources throughout your college career. Apply now! Applications due July 2!

- Connections@Clark begins on Aug. 14 and is a pre-orientation program specifically for those who identify as of ALANA (African American, Latinx, Asian American, Middle Eastern, Native American, and multiracial) descent who want to learn more about identity, diversity, and social justice as it relates to your experience at Clark and as a leader.

Tell Us More About Yourself

First-Year Students: Complete the CIRP Survey
Last week, we invited you to participate in the CIRP (Cooperative Institutional Research Program) Freshman Survey, a national survey sponsored by the Higher Education Research Institute at UCLA. Please complete the survey today! Check your email for the survey link and your login code.

Incoming Becker Transfer Students: Complete the Becker Survey
Clark University faculty and staff are interested in learning more about you and have developed a special survey for you to share more about yourself. If you haven’t already, please click here and log in with your Clark email and password to tell us more about you and what you need! Email dos@clarku.edu with any questions!

Vote for Your Favorite T-Shirt Design
Every year, Clark creates a special T-shirt to celebrate new Clarkies — and you get to choose the design! Click here to vote for your favorite design and order your free shirt. Voting runs through July 15.

Save the Date: Orientation and Move-In Day

New Student Orientation will take place the week before classes begin in August. The program provides all incoming students an opportunity to learn how to be successful at Clark. You’ll get to know members of your class, connect with a peer mentor, explore the campus and Worcester, and make friends! If you’re living on campus, you will have plenty of time to move into your residence hall, unpack, and get prepared for the academic year.

- Incoming first-year students: Move-In Day and Orientation begins Thursday, Aug. 19.
- Incoming sophomore, junior, and senior transfer students: Move-In Day and Orientation begins Friday, Aug. 20.

Office Spotlight: Career Connections Center

The Career Connections Center (CCC) offers students many services such as help finding an internship or job, mock interviewing, writing a resume and cover letter, and help with graduate school exploration. The CCC also hosts career fairs, connects students with alumni, and operates the job shadow program. At the CCC, you will find Elizabeth Gittens and Julie Bolduc, who are excited to support you in your Clark journey.

Elizabeth Gittens is the associate director of Early Career Development. Elizabeth delivers career exploration activities, programs and events for first-year, sophomore, junior, and undecided students. She also provides specialized advising and counseling to students regarding career exploration and job searching. Elizabeth advises arts and humanities and social sciences majors, and those students who are unsure but are leaning that way. Elizabeth loves historical period dramas, ‘70s soft rock, and anything related to the supernatural.

Julie Bolduc is the director of Career Operations and On-Campus Student Employment at the CCC. Julie oversees the operations of the Career Connections Center including processes, systems, reporting, and analysis. She also handles Clark’s on-campus student employment program. Julie advises students on how to successfully navigate their on-campus job experience, as well as first years on how to use our tools and resources. Julie loves photography and recycling.

Stay engaged and connected to your fellow Clarkies.
