

CLARK UNIVERSITY
OFFICE OF RESIDENTIAL LIFE AND HOUSING
2017 – 2018 UNDERGRADUATE HOUSING CONTRACT

As an academic community, Clark University provides a residential atmosphere where study and learning can take place along with recreation, relaxation and social development. This atmosphere is dependent upon the willingness of all individuals to behave in such a way that personal freedom and responsibility co-exist.

The student agrees to abide by all rules and regulations pertaining to Clark housing as outlined in the Undergraduate Student Handbook and in this document. Students do not need to submit a signed copy of this form; the act of submitting an online undergraduate housing application of any type with Clark University sign on credentials indicates acceptance of the terms of the Housing Contract.

Students who live in "Apartment Lifestyle" housing (where they have access to kitchen facilities shared only by a small population of students) may choose from any undergraduate meal plan or choose to not have any version of a meal plan.
- Students who change from "Traditional Lifestyle" or "Suite Lifestyle" housing to "Apartment Style" after the first four weeks of the semester will be required to keep their full meal plan for the remainder of the semester.
- Students are required to live on campus for four semesters. Students who reach junior status or complete their four semester requirement mid-year remain bound to the contract as it is a full year agreement.
- Students may cancel or suspend their Housing Contracts for the following reasons for the fees indicated below.

- Without charge: (1) completion of degree requirements at mid-year, (2) official withdrawal from or taking an official "Leave of Absence" from the University mid-semester or mid-year. Student remains bound to contract should they return before the end of the academic year. (3) Notification to the RLH Office BEFORE being issued a Lottery Number or being assigned to a room that they do not wish to participate in the Housing Selection process. (4) Incoming students who apply for housing and decide not to attend Clark (Note that housing and tuition deposits are forfeited, but no additional fees are imposed).
 - For a $100 Fee: (1) elect not to select a room at Housing Lottery after receiving a lottery number, but before selecting a room. (2) official withdrawal from or taking an official "Leave of Absence" from the University prior to the start of the Fall Semester (Student remains bound to contract should they return before the end of the academic year).
 - For a $300 Fee: (1) attend a Clark University approved "study abroad" program for the Fall Semester after selecting a space at Lottery. Student remains bound to contract should they return before the end of the academic year.
 - For a $1,000 Fee: (1) assigned to a room at Lottery, but subsequently appeal to move off campus, (2) granted an appeal to move off campus to commute from home after applying for housing, (3) released from their Housing Contract for medical or financial reasons, (4) being granted a housing appeal for any other reason.
- Students who transition to part time status or take a leave in School of Professional Studies remain bound to this contract unless granted a housing appeal.
 - Students who withdraw or take a leave of absence from the University, including those who Study Abroad, and then subsequently reverse their decision or return from leave within the contractual period remain bound to the conditions of the Housing Contract, and are subject to additional fees (see above).
 - In order for your room assignment to be guaranteed, students must demonstrate clear intent and ability to return by August 1, 2017. Determination of intent and ability is determined by the University, which considers factors such as payment of student account, registration for classes, completion of required forms, and active communication with University Officials including Student Accounts Counselors, Dean of Students Office, etc.
 - Prior to moving onto campus, a student's financial obligations to the University must be satisfied. If financial obligations are delinquent, the University maintains the right to remove the student from their housing assignment.
 - If a student is required to move out of housing for disciplinary sanctions, room charges will not be refunded.
