The Centre Européen Schengen a.s.b.l. is a non-profit organization that manages the European Museum, a Europe Direct Information Centre, and a tourist information office.

The Europe Direct Information Centre acts as a local intermediary between the EU and its citizens. Covering the entire territory of the EU, the Europe Direct network aims to provide information and advice on questions pertaining to the EU and its policies, while actively promoting the local and regional debate on EU-related issues.