To earn your undergraduate degree, you must:
- Complete at least 32 units of credit (at least 16 units must be completed at Clark).
- Complete all major/minor/concentration requirements
- Complete all Program of Liberal Studies (PLS) requirements (six Perspective courses and two Critical Thinking courses). Each perspective course must be taken in a different subject area. The two Critical Thinking courses may overlap with a Perspective subject area.
- Earn a minimum overall grade point average of 2.00.
- Earn no more than four D or D+ grades.
- NOTE: A maximum of two courses may be used to fulfill more than one program of study requirement. For example, HIST 181 and HIST 233 may be counted toward both the History major and the Asian Studies minor.
