Should a student be scheduled for three back-to-back final exams on a single day, the middle exam may be rescheduled in coordination with the instructor.

Comprehensive final exams may not be given (or due) during the last week of class or during the scheduled reading period. Other examinations and tests may be given at any time during the course at the discretion of the instructor.

Asynchronous courses may choose a due date/time however, they cannot schedule a mandatory day/time to meet (in person or virtually).
