

CLARK UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE
INVITES APPLICATIONS FOR

THE ZENOVIA SOCHOR MEMORIAL AWARD

SCHOLARSHIP FOR STUDYING ABROAD DURING SPRING SEMESTER 2022

Professor Zenovia Sochor taught comparative politics courses at Clark for almost two decades before her untimely death in 1998. She was known by students and colleagues as a gifted scholar, a valued friend, and a caring mentor. Alumni, friends, and colleagues have created the Zenovia Sochor Memorial Fund to provide support to Clark students for study abroad. The $500.00 Sochor award is given to a student each year.

To be considered for this award, students must:

- have an overall GPA of 3.4 or higher
- be a declared Political Science major
- study abroad during spring 2022 semester, preferably in an Eastern European country; other programs such as the London Internship, Namibia, etc. are also acceptable.

There is no application form for the Zenovia Sochor Scholarship. In order to apply, submit a 1-2 page typed essay that describes:

- your reasons and goals for studying abroad
- when and where you have been accepted to study abroad

Include your name, box number, e-mail address, and local phone number on the cover page and attach an unofficial transcript at the end of your essay. Please use this link www.clarku.edu/opportunity-funding to access the Survey and apply for the Scholarship.

After studying abroad, the recipient must prepare a 2-3 page report based on his or her experiences.

If you have any questions, please contact Professor Robert Boatright, Chair, Department of Political Science, 313 Jefferson Academic Center, at x7632 or via email at rboatright@clarku.edu.
