DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE
INVITES APPLICATIONS FOR

THE ZENOVIA SOCHOR MEMORIAL AWARD
SCHOLARSHIP FOR STUDYING ABROAD DURING SPRING SEMESTER

Professor Zenovia Sochor taught comparative politics courses at Clark for almost two decades before her untimely death in 1998. She was known by students and colleagues as a gifted scholar, a valued friend, and a caring mentor. Alumni, friends, and colleagues have created the Zenovia Sochor Memorial Fund to provide support to Clark students for study abroad. The $500.00 Sochor award is given to a student each year.

To be considered for this award, students must:

- have an overall GPA of 3.4 or higher
- be a declared Political Science major or minor
- study abroad during spring, preferably in an Eastern European country; other programs are also acceptable.

In order to apply, submit a 1-2 page typed essay that describes:

- your reasons and goals for studying abroad
- when and where you have been accepted to study abroad
- Include your name, box number, e-mail address, and cell phone number on the cover page and attach an unofficial academic transcript at the end of your essay.

After studying abroad, the recipient must prepare a 2-3 page report based on their experiences.

Applications are due by 5:00 p.m., October 30, and should be sent to Prof. Valerie Sperling, Department of Political Science, 406 Jefferson Academic Center or vsperling@clarku.edu. If you have any questions, please contact Professor Sperling at x7679 or via email.
