

Books Can Be Expensive...We Can Help!

Did You Know the Library has free resources for books? They do—over 250,000 full text e-books! Check out their website to learn more.

What does the Library offer?

- Make an appointment for a virtual or face-to-face consultation
- Ask a Question via chat, email, text, or phone
- Browse Course Reserves for access to require course materials
- Don't see your assigned course materials? Submit a request!

Need access to materials they don't have?

- Use the Clark Library interlibrary loan services (ILL) to request books, chapters, journal articles, and more! You can make requests directly through the Discovery search tool, our library catalog, or from your ILL profile page.
- Article requests typically take 1-2 days while print/hard copy loans tend to arrive between 10 and 14 days.

Know of something the Library should own?

Use our Library Materials Purchase Request Form to request the library purchase materials for the collection. We're specifically interested in having student input on materials for our new popular reading collection!

Need assistance purchasing books through the Dean of Students Book Fund?

You can apply for assistance in the purchase (not reimbursement) of textbooks through the DOS Emergency Fund. Akademos, the leader in online and hybrid bookstore solutions for colleges and universities, offers Clark students $3500 in grant money each year ($1750 per semester). Apply using this form.
