MPA Senior Leadership Program
Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Do I have to be working in the field of public administration to qualify for the program?

- The MPA-SL program is for individuals who have 3-5 years of experience in the public sector or doing public sector related work for a nonprofit or other organizations.

How much does the program cost?

- The cost for the 2019-2021 cohort is $34,920 which includes all residency costs, such as food and board, materials, trainings and books. There is a one-time enrollment fee of $100 and a $40 annual graduate school activity fee. We are currently offering a 20% discount for the first 2 enrolled students from every New England state and New York in order to obtain a diverse and talented cohort. With the 20% discount, the program cost is $27,936.

Are residency sessions mandatory?

- Residency sessions are an integral part of the program and are mandatory. They will provide students the skills needed to tackle issues in public administration in their communities, and an opportunity to engage with fellow cohort members, faculty, and staff.

How long is the program?

- Begins with the Worcester residency on August 9th, 2019 and ends with Providence residency on May 7th, 2021. The total length of the program is 19 months.

How many courses are in the program?

- The program consists of 6 core courses, 2 prior learning credits, research and capstone. The core courses are Organizational Behavior & Leadership, Ethics and Governance, Policy Analysis, Issues and Cases, Public Budgeting, and Labor Relations & Collective Bargaining. The first year of the program will focus on researching a policy challenge relevant to your community. During the second year, you will apply that research to address and solve that challenge head on through a capstone project.

How do I qualify for the 2 prior learning experience credits?

- The two prior learning credits waive two courses in the program and are based on previous work experience. To qualify for the two prior learning credits, you must submit a 5-7 page document before the first day of class on August 7th, 2019. This document should consist of two parts. The first of the document consists of your certifications, awards or internal training relevant to the program. The second, and lengthier section, should highlight how your credentials meet the course learning objectives of the two waived courses, Change Management and Project Management.
Is this an online or in person program?

- The MPA-SL is a hybrid program. Each of the 6 core courses begins with a residency, and the remainder of the course is online. The research and capstone courses will be independently led, but will require period check-ins with course instructor.

What are some of the additional benefits of the program?

- The program provides students with a career coach, media training, and the opportunity to independently research and address a public policy challenge.

I have never taken an online class before. What support is available to help new online learners?

- At first residency session, we will have an hour long training from one of Clark’s online training specialists to help students prepare for taking online classes. In addition, Clark offers both online and phone support for all online learners through its IT help desk. The IT help desk can be reached at 508-793-7745. Between May 20th and August 23rd, its hours are 8:00am-8:00pm Monday-Thursday and 8:00am-5:00pm on Friday.

I have never done a Capstone project and have heard they are pretty intensive? What can I expect?

- The Capstone project is the culmination of your degree program. The capstone project topic will be your choice – something related to your current job. You will work one on one with the Capstone advisor all through the Research and Capstone Modules. There is a Capstone standard process that you follow and your advisor will be there every step of the way with you. Many graduate students find the Capstone project the most rewarding learning experience of the program.

Is there financial aid available?

- Like most graduate programs, we do not have a pool of funds available to offer need or merit based aid. However, we are offering a 20% reduction in tuition for the first two talented students from each New England state and New York. Clark University does offer access to a number of loan programs and tuition payment plans to help manage the cost of graduate education. If you have more questions, please contact Clark Financial Aid office at 508-793-7478 or finaid@clarku.edu.

What is the application deadline?

- Our current application deadline is July 1st, 2019 for the 2019-2021 cohort. However, we can push this application deadline to July 15th, 2019 for strong candidates.

How flexible is the structure of the program?

- Due to the unique design of the program, participants are expected to attend residencies and take classes in order with the rest of the cohort.
What happens if I need to drop out due to a family illness or emergency?

- If you need to drop out, you will not be able to re-enter the Senior Leadership program as it is cohort based. However, any courses you have completed in the Senior Leadership program can be applied to the traditional MPA program and you can complete that degree.

Will there be credit for previous graduate courses?

- As the program is only 10 courses and you receive 2 credits for prior learning experience, we will not waive credit for previous graduate courses.
